

About the conference

The programme looks, in a pan-Orthodox spirit, at Christian dialogue with other religions in all its aspects. As Orthodox, we share a single faith: how can we deepen our understanding of this faith, and how do we all - clergy and laity alike - work together in transmitting this faith to others whilst living in a multi-religious society?

Booking and fees

The fees will cover all meals and conference materials.

(All prices include a £50.00 non-returnable deposit.)

The core adult fee is 195.00

The following reduced fees are available:

Unwaged (UW) 160.00

Young people in full-time education (ST) 150.00

- Bookings will only be accepted if received with the £50.00 deposit.
- Bookings less than a month from the conference will need to be sent with total payment.
- If, up to two weeks before the conference you need to cancel your booking, we will refund your fee less the deposit.
- In addition, at the discretion of the Fellowship Committee, there will be bursaries available to cover up to 75% of the cost for those who would not otherwise be able to attend,

A very limited number of non-residential places (£30.00 per day with meals) are available. Please note that these must be pre-booked.

More details

The conference will take place at The Hayes, Swanwick, Derbyshire. It is very close to Junction 28 of the M1. All bedrooms at The Hayes are en-suite, and it is fully accessible to wheelchair users. The Centre has a bar, and leisure facilities.

Preparatory material, travel directions and a list of participants' names and addresses to facilitate car-sharing will be sent shortly before the Conference.
